

Lectures 1.

12 March 1958

Mr. Donald C. Rubel
1421 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Rubel:

Thank you for your letter of 10 March. I believe it would be necessary for me to return to Washington the same evening I speak. I am planning to take the train which will bring me to Philadelphia at 4:11 p.m. and shall meet you at about 5:00 p.m. at the Bellevue-Stratford as per your suggestion.

As I have written Mr. Willits, I am indeed complimented to be invited to address the Sunday Breakfast Club and hope that what I have to say will be of some interest to its distinguished membership.

Sincerely,

Robert Amory, Jr.